

Al-Qaissi Roastery delivers finest quality after joining SAP Business One

Al-Qaissi Roastery is a series of roasteries under the management of Hisham Al-Qaissi and Sons Company founded in 1981. They specialize in roasting and providing the finest qualities of nuts, coffee, spices, and more. They joined the SAP family to accomplish their goal to display competency and responsibility in every aspect of work, and to be known for premium-level products and service.

Before: Challenges and Opportunities

- The company was using a system that could not sustain the level of transactions in the accounts receivable area that had been handled
- They were facing issues in controlling the warehouses and costs as well as a lack of financial analysis of purchases and sales

Why SAP Business One and SkyTech

- SAP Business One gave them the opportunity to expand their business outside of Amman and outside of Jordan
- Partner provided order and faster resolution of responding to problems they had with previous programs

After: Value-Driven Results

- SAP Business One drove the automation of the company's processes resulting in better control over inventory, management and material costs
- Developing the expansion
- A system with centralized and updated comprehensive monetary reports of purchases and sales

"Thanks to SAP we now have customized analysis that saved us a lot of time and reports which led to a faster response in decision making."
